Business men will tell you that an ad in The Republican can bring good results, because the people read it.

President's Private Secretary, Mr. George B. Cortelyou, President McKinley's new secretary, is by no means a new man to the White House. He has been there since 1895, when

GEORGE B. CORTELYOU.
President Cleveland installed him as his executive clerk. It is said that Mr. Cortelyou makes a most admirable "buffer" between the president and the bustling throng.

Conscience the Coward.
Murderers untaught suffer awful agonies of fear when alone with their consciences, but when apprehended, tried, convicted, sentenced and incarcerated they become callous to fear. Jailers tell me this is the general rule. There is an acquitted murderer in this city, once a leading politician, who has not been able to sleep alone in a dark room these 29 years. A light must be kept burning and an attendant is constantly on guard. A Wall-street broker, who has "done" every one of his most faithful friends, dares not go to bed in the dark. He keeps a light burning in his room and one in the hall, leaving the door open. In the small hours of the morning he awakes his family with pitiful cries. The city man who is not afraid of the dark alley, who will brave thugs and stable gangs at any hour of the night, is in a panic when alone in a forest—New York Press.

Not a Fault Finder.
In his "Lighter Moments" the late Bishop Washburn How told of a lady, a great admirer of a certain preacher, who took Bishop Magee with her to hear him and asked him afterward what he thought of the sermon. "It was very long," the bishop said. "Yes," said the lady, "but there was a saint in the pulpit." "And a martyr in the pew," rejoined the bishop.

Not a Fault Finder.
"You are not one of these men who find fault with the cooking at home?" "No," answered Mr. Meekton; "I don't exactly find fault, but occasionally I do feel called on to apologize for the way things taste when Henrietta gets home from the club. You see, I can't help it."

WONDERFUL PROGRESS.

For a company which has but just completed twenty-five years of corporate existence, the Provident Life of New York puts forth a statement showing really wonderful progress. Only sixteen companies of the United States have over $100,000,000 of ordinary life business in force, and the Provident Savings is one of the youngest companies attaining that distinction. I. R. Burns, resident manager, new Mason building.
